Vintage MARE & WEANLING SALE • Monday 12 June, EquiMark Sales Centre, Durbanville

Big Money At Vintage

The South African breeding industry is booming, but top stallions are hard to find. That much was evident from the 2006 Vintage Mare Sale, and the stallion service auction that followed the sale.

The big prices realised at the recent yearling sales give breeders hope for the future. Getting good breeding stock (ie. mares whose offspring will get onto the National Sale) isn't easy. Mares of that ilk don't come up at auction often - so when they do caution goes to the wind. Top price at Vintage was R550.000 for Studio Fifty Four, the Gr2 Natal Oaks winning daughter of Badger Land. She will start her stud career at l'Ormarins in Franschoek. Another young stakes winning mare, She's A Charm (in foal for the first time, to Casey Tibbs) changed hands at R400.000, Klawervlei Stud the new owner. Sainly Soul, stakes winning dam of 2 winners to date, moves from Lammerskraal Stud to Aldora in Natal, R425.000 the successful bid. Klawervlei also secured Peonie Princess from Daytona Stud for R400.000, the mare having produced top sprinter Poly Nation and useful 5-time winner Scotland Yard as her first two foals.

Wilgerbosdrift-owned Gia's Secret, a stakes placed full sister to Arabian Lass and in foal to Fort Wood, was knocked down for R500.000 to the Brandtner's Nutfield Stud.

Thirty one mares fetched R100.000 or more, giving the sale an average of R72.000 for 121 lots sold.

Services to Jet Master and Count Dubois dominated the stallion auction. Jet Master, whose book is full this season at a fee of R65.000, proved as unbeatable in the ring as on the track. A service to him fetched R140.000.

The R120.000 Barry Ansell forked out for a service to Count Dubois showed just how quickly fortunes can change in the world of racing and breeding. Some four months ago, at the J&B Met Cocktails and Racing stallion auction, the bidding on a service to Count Dubois stopped at... R2500. You work it out.

The stallion auction, held for the benefit of the Cape Breeders Club, raised R950.000. The aim of the Club is to secure a suitable shuttle stallion when the time comes.
