

Twice Over Tops

SALE PRICES 2017 KZN YEARLING SALE 28-29 June 2017

Twice Over, sire of this season's leading Gr1 winning 2yo Sand And Sea from his first crop, got the top price at the KZN yearling sale.

Nick Jonsson was the successful bidder at R800k on a colt from the Highlands consignment. The youngster is the first foal of his dam, a winning Tapit mare from the female line of sire Roberto. Recall that Highlands also consigned the top priced yearling at least year's KZN sale, with a R1 million colt (and also had the second highest at R850k).

Second top-price this year was a for colt from the first local crop of Duke Of Marmalade (who had a G1 2nd in the US over the weekend), consigned by Rathmor Stud. The yearling is half brother to Gr3 One Cool Dude and fell to a R460k bid from Team G Racing.

Nick Jonsson also got the third highest priced colt, a half brother to Gr2 placed Greasepaint, consigned by Summerhill. The hammer fell at R320k, which was the same price Brett Crawford paid for a Captain Al colt from Boland Stud. That yearling's dam is a Silvano half sister to Gr2 winner Hidden Beauty (who is by Victory Moon, and from Victory Moon's own female line).

The highest priced filly was a Var full sister to a winner, consigned by Backworth Stud. Mary Liley made the successful bid at R375k, the third highest price at the sale overall.

The KZN Sale median price was R45k, down from R50k last year, continuing the slide shown in the last three years. Colt's median was R50k (R60k last year), the one for fillies R35k (from R40k).

Sale graduates qualify for the annual KZN Yearling Sale Million for 2yo's, run on July-day. The race was won this year by Al Mariachi, a R70k buy last year. He'd earlier this year finished third to Sand And Sea in the Gr Gold Medallion, and took his earnings to R760k.

Sale Index = price SI

the price of the yearling compared to the average price of a yearling of the same sex at the same sale
