Rain At Last!

First-season sire Soft Falling Rain broke the dam at the Mistico Cape Yearling Sale with a colt consigned by Wilgerbosdrift. The youngster had been widely anticipated to be the top seller, with the Bass stable topping the spirited bidding at R200k. The sale topper is half brother to 3 winners out of a winning Western Winter mare from the Diorissimo female line.

Wilgerbosdrift had five of the top-ten priced lots at the sale, including a R150k filly by the farm's other first-season stallion Flower Alley. The top priced filly, though, was a R170k daughter of 2018 freshman sire Master Of My Fate from Wilgerbosdrift, signed for by Form Bloodstock. The dam is a 5-time winning Tiger Ridge mare from the Soho Secret female line.

Three colts shared the third highest price of R160k at the auction. Australian sire Time Thief, with his first local crop, had a son of a winning Argentinian mare from the family of champion Ilha da Vitoria (a former Wilgerbosdrift campaigner). He was consigned by Hemel 'n Aarde, and signed for by Pound Bloodstock. Soft Falling Rain featured again, with a colt out of an unraced Fort Wood mare, bought by Glen Kotzen from John Everett's Narrow Creek consignment. Wilgerbosdrift joined in with a R160k What A Winter colt, first foal of a non-winning Var mare from a US female line. In-form trainer Harold Crawford signed for the youngster.

The overall median price at the sale was R50k, up from R40k at the corresponding sale a year ago. The colts median was, at R50k, the same as last year. Fillies median was up to R50k from last year's R35k.
