BSA CAPE MARE & WEANLING SALE

Thursday, 24 May 2018
Starting 11h00

Venue:
Mistico Equestrian Centre,
Paarl

There will be fingers crossed that the positivity generated by the successful recent National Yearling Sale will gain further momentum and spill over into the arena at the Mistico Equestrian Centre in Paarl on Thursday where the 2018 BSA Cape Mare & Weanling Sale will be held.

A bumper and quality catalogue of 270 lots, bolstered by a Klawervlei contingent of 75, will come under the hammer after the Cape Breeders Club annual stallion services auction.

The stallion services auction – at 09h30 for 10h00 - will be offering the chance to acquire services to some of the Cape's most popular and promising stallions - often at reduced rates.

The mares being sold, by a host of international and local sires from Lomitas to Pulpit and Trippi to Western Winter, include a Gr3 six-time stakes winner in foal to hot sire of the moment, Master Of My Fate. There is also a Zabeel full sister to Gr1 Australian Oaks winner Grand Echezeaux.

Daddy In Charge

The Arqana 2018 Breeze Up sale held at Deauville on Saturday returned figures largely on a par with last year's record-breaking renewal.

A slightly bigger catalogue brought an increased turnover of €14,766,000 (+14%) while the average price held steady at €130,673 (-5%).

The final opportunity to acquire a son of Scat Daddy's penultimate crop in a sales ring materialised in a relentless duel between Nicolas de Watrigant and Jamie McCalmont, who was standing alongside Coolmore's Mathieu Legars, taking instructions over the phone.

The former owners of the late stallion had the final say with a bid of €825,000 for a colt (lot 165) offered by Willie Browne's Mocklershill. He is from the family of US Graded winners

ALLAMERICAN BERTIE, HURRICANE BERTIE as well as BEACH PATROL who ran 2nd in the Gr1 Turf Classic after the catalogue was printed.

A delighted McCalmont commented: "This was the very last opportunity to buy a colt such a great sire, wasn't it? Scat Daddy was an outstanding racehorse who turned into an outstanding sire and is even turning into a sire of sires – No Nay Never had another winner this afternoon and seems to be really taking of. It is very sad that he is no longer around. This horse didn't look like he would go as fast as he did, which I think is a good thing. He's been bought for the Coolmore partners."

Diary Dates

The Cape Breeders Club have a busy fortnight ahead with their annual stallion services auction being the curtain-raiser to the Cape Mare & Weanling Sale, followed by a seminar on 29 May.

The stallion services auction incorporate 45 services from the likes of the exciting recent stakes icebreaker Master Of My Fate, to Dynasty's son Jackson, and the likes of Soft Falling Rain and Drakenstein's Equus champion, What A Winter.

Full details will be available later this week on the brand new Cape Breeders Club website (www.capebreeders.co.za) and on www.sportingpost.co.za

Please also make a note of the CBC Seminar at Glen Carlou Wine Estate at 10h00 on Tuesday 29 May. Enquiries to Wendy Probert – secretary@capebreeders.co.za

The Cape Breeders Club NPC was incorporated in 2001. Its aims and objectives are to assist the Thoroughbred Breeders in the Cape in all matters pertaining to the industry.

In recent years the focus has been on education and the Club instigated the Grooms Training Program, which is used as a benchmark for the qualification for eligibility for entry into the Co-ops.

The Club is funded by the generous donations of services by the Stallion Owners/Managers, which services are auctioned annually.
