

Joey Ramsden

A PhD in the understandings, workings and mindset for the current and future of Kenilworth Racing, the RA and Phumelela, and how we may all conceivably live together in harmony and profitability. Or how about a working, realistic and affordable export protocol before 90% of trainers are forced out of business. Oh, and a divorce!

Gavin Lerena

For everyone to have a beautiful and healthy Christmas and to be safe and for peace in SA - and the good Lord to keep me safe in race riding. My family - 30 of us - are going to the Bryanston Country Club for lunch.

Rob Scott

I'll be spending the day with my Dad. Wishes should be secret, but the one thing you cannot buy is a Gr1 winner!

Geoff Woodruff

To have harmony in all quarters of racing. I'll be working on the day.

VIDRIK THURLING

Happiness and prosperity for my newly married daughter Derry-Anne who tied the knot on the 17th.

Robert Bloomberg

Wishing for the survival and prosperity of racing and that the industry stands united and works in unison and that common sense prevails over rule books! Will be on holiday with family in Perth Australia having a seriously well-earned break.

Greg Cheyne

I hope everybody gets a chance to spend time with family. Personally I am hoping for no light rides on Boxing Day! We are spending the day up the Garden Route with my mom and a life long best friend and his family from Scotland.

Vaughan Marshall

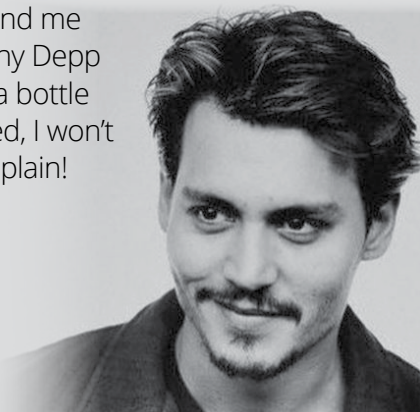

My Christmas wish is that people come to the racecourse and show their appreciation to the horses as they deserve it. We are having a very low-key day.

LYLE HEWITSON

All I want for Christmas is a Gr1 winner! I am spending the day in PE with my Dad and close friends, then flying to Durban as I have a ride in the Christmas Handicap.

Jane Thomas

Wishing for healthy horses and working on the day. If anyone wants to send me Johnny Depp and a bottle of red, I won't complain!

Warren Lenferna

Binoculars, a mountain bike and to turn all my seconds into winners! Spending the day with my sister with family around the pool, a traditional lunch and an ice cold Savingnon Blanc.

Glen & Kathi Kotzen

Our wish is that nobody is alone on the day and for us all to share what you have and be mindful of those less fortunate, as it is a time for giving. We work the horses in the morning and then afternoon is with family and loved ones - and the turkey and all the trimmings.

HEDLEY MCGRATH

My Christmas wish is to have good health, good fortune and lots of happiness which may transcend to all those around me. Oh, and a good bottle of Gabrielskloof Five Arches Red. Spending Christmas Day with family and friends.

Louis Burke

I wish for brand new kit! I'll be enjoying the Christmas lunch and then complaining about how much I ate afterwards.

Donna Bernhardt

I wish for the general public to know and love the game of horseracing again so that we can start building a fan base.

MJ Byleveld

My wish is to get back on a horse. Spending time with family on the day.

TEX LERENA

Wishing for good health and happiness for family, friends and acquaintances and for racing's leadership to flourish in the new year.
