Deductions

(1) Where a horse/contestant is withdrawn before or after coming under starter's orders, all fixed odds bets on that horse/contestant shall be void, and all bets struck as fixed odds on the remaining horses/contestants on the day of the race or "with a run" shall be subject to deduction calculated in accordance with the following table -

ODDS OF WITHDRAWN HORSE	DEDUCTIONS
25/1 & Above	Nil
13/1 - 20/1	5%
9/1 - 12/1	10%
6/1 - 8/1	15%
4/1 - 11/2	20%
3/1 - 7/2	25%
22/10 - 28/10	30%
16/10 - 2/1	35%
13/10 - 15/10	40%
11/10 - 12/10	45%
1/1	50%
8/10 - 9/10	55%
6/10 - 7/10	60%
5/10	65%
4/10	70%
1/3 & Shorter	80%

Margins of odds not covered will default to the lower deduction amount.

(2) Any bets struck "with a run" after the official announcement of the withdrawal of one of or more horses/contestants shall not be subject to any adjustment unless there are further withdrawals.

(3) Should two horses/contestants be withdrawn simultaneously and both are subject to a deduction on any winning bets, the deductions shall be applied separately and not simultaneously.

(4) Deductions shall not apply to starting price bets, unless a late withdrawal(s) occurs.

Postponed races

Where a race advertised to be run on a certain date is postponed to any future date:

- all ante post bets on such race shall stand;
- within 48 hours after the original advertised date at the same venue, all bets "with a run" shall stand;
- More than 48 hours after its initial scheduling, the race shall be deemed to have been abandoned for betting purposes, and bets "with a run" shall be treated as described in rule 14.

Change of venue or track

Where the venue of a race or track is changed from that originally advertised, the race shall be deemed to have been abandoned and such bets shall be treated as described in rule 16.

Dead heats

(1) In the case of a dead heat in a match race the selection shall be void, unless the bet was placed on the outcome being a dead heat.

(2) In the case of a two horses/contestants dead heat in races other than "match races", and also in winning multiple event bets where one race results in a dead heat, the punter shall lose half of the odds in the event where the dead heat occurs, and further lose half of the amount staked, the entire bet is then recalculated as a result of the event where the dead heat occurred.

(3) In winning multiple events bets where two races result in dead heats, the punter shall win the odds to one quarter of the stake and lose the other three quarters, and so on for further dead heats.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of rule 18(2), in the case of a three horse/contestant dead heat in a multiple event bets, where one race/event results in a triple dead heat, the punter shall lose two thirds of the odds in the event where the dead heat occurs and lose two thirds of the stake and the entire bet is recalculated as a result of the event where the dead heat occurred.

Starting prices

(1) In starting price bets, the starting price shall be the last official fixed price disseminated either from the race track or recognised dissemination facility, as displayed on the betting board indicator at the start of the event.

(2) In the event of a late withdrawal where no new betting is displayed before the start of a race, the starting price shall be the last price displayed, subject to the adjustment reflected in the deduction table in rule 15

Place betting at fixed odds:

The following shall apply to place betting at fixed odds:

Carded Runners (Excluding Reserve Runners / Emergency Acceptors)	Number of Place Payouts
3 and Less	Nil
4 to 7	2
8 to 15	3
16 and Over	4

(a) in the event of two horses dead heating for third place in a field of 8 or more carded runners, settling will take place on the same basis as for win bets and the same principle will apply to a dead heat for 2nd place in a race of 7 or less carded runners, and a dead heat for 4th place in a race of 16 or more carded runners.

(b) All place bets are subject to the rules relating to scratching and deductions.

(c) In the event of a scratching and where Fixed Odds place betting was being offered, Betting World will pay according to the original number of places advertised.

Betting World reserves the right to suspend further place betting on such an event.

In the event of any race being ordered to be re-run:

- "starting price" bets shall be calculated and paid at the current price at the time the race is finally run;
- "with a run" bets on any horse/contestants, which started on the first occasion and which as subsequently scratched, shall be void and the deductions in terms of rule 16 shall apply; and
- "ante-post" bets shall stand.
