1. HORSES that suffer a unilateral or bilateral EPISTAXIS will be deemed to have an Exercise-Induced Pulmonary Haemorrhage (EIPH) unless a veterinary surgeon, employed by the NATIONAL HORSERACING AUTHORITY can determine with sufficient certainty and/or an endoscopic examination that the EPISTAXIS is not of pulmonary origin.
2. The TRAINER or PERSON responsible for the HORSE may request an endoscopic examination to be performed by a veterinary surgeon within four (4) hours of the running of the RACE, barrier trial, fitness trial or training to determine the origin of the EPISTAXIS.

3. Should a veterinary surgeon provide a veterinary certificate stating that the EPISTAXIS was not as a result of an EIPH, the STEWARDS may lift the suspension imposed and the cost of such endoscopic examination may be recovered from the NATIONAL HORSERACING AUTHORITY.
4. Should an EPISTAXIS occur in the absence of a LICENCED OFFICIAL or veterinary surgeon at any place where training, racing or breeding of HORSES takes place, the TRAINER or PERSON responsible for the HORSE shall inform the STEWARDS, in WRITING within twenty-four (24) hours of such an occurrence.
5. Acting in terms of Rule 93.1.1, the STEWARDS on the report of a groom, PERSON, LICENCED OFFICIAL or veterinary surgeon may suspend any HORSE which has suffered an EPISTAXIS due to EIPH in training, or after the running of a RACE for the following periods of time:

The TRAINER or PERSON responsible for the HORSE may request an endoscopic examination to be performed by a veterinary surgeon on duty on racedays. Alternatively, a veterinary surgeon on duty may suggest to the TRAINER or PERSON responsible for a HORSE that such HORSE should be submitted to endoscopy in view of clinical signs displayed by such HORSE or performance. Regardless of the case, a HORSE will only be submitted to endoscopy if the TRAINER or PERSON responsible and a veterinary surgeon on duty consent to such examination.

If a finding made by the veterinary surgeon on duty warrants further investigation, a Veterinary Treatment Register will be issued to the trainer and advice will be given for such a HORSE to be referred to a private veterinary surgeon.
